

REMARKS

Claims 16, 17 and 20-27 are pending in the present application. Claims 16- 17 and 20-21 have been allowed. Claims 22-27 stand rejected. By this amendment, claims 22 and 27 have been amended as set forth above. New claim 28 has been added. It is respectfully submitted that the pending claims define allowable subject matter.

Claims 22 and 27 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite. Claims 22 and 27 have been amended as set forth above to overcome these rejections. Thus, the Applicants respectfully submit that claims 22 and 27 should be in condition for allowance.

New claim 28 has been added and conforms to the Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance, which recites the following:

The prior art, specifically Castille ('502) in view of Cohen ('187) further in view of Verdun ('802) or Tashiro ('836) do not disclose or fairly teach:

a computer jukebox comprising a communication interface for receiving compressed digital song data, the song identity data and compressed pictoral graphics;

a processor, a memory connected to the processor and a memory including a decompression algorithm for decompressing compressed digital song data, instructions causing the processor, when no song is playing on the computer jukebox to generate a user attract mode wherein digitally-stored song associated graphic images are shown on the display.

See Paper 18 at page 2. New claim 28 tracks the Examiner's statement of reasons allowance, and should therefore be in condition for allowance.

In light of the above, the Applicants request reconsideration of the application and look forward to working with the Examiner to resolve any remaining issues in the application. A check in the amount of $43 is enclosed to cover the cost of the new claim.

If the Examiner has any questions or the Applicants can be of any assistance, the Examiner is invited to contact the undersigned. The Commissioner is authorized to charge any additional necessary fees or credit any overpayment to the Deposit Account of McAndrews, Held & Malloy, Account No. 13-0017.

Respectfully submitted,
